CASATI OLFACTORY PALETTE

PLiturgical goldsmithing.

Crafted from metal with a brass electroplated finish, the Casati Olfactory Palette is a dedicated surface for fragrance discovery.

Engraved with the Casati logo, it is designed to receive the fragrance sprayed directly onto its metal surface, allowing the composition to unfold naturally while offering a slower, more intimate olfactory experience.

Both an elegant display object and a refined fragrance tool, it accompanies boutiques, collectors and perfume enthusiasts in the presentation and appreciation of Casati creations.

A small object designed to transform the simple act of testing a fragrance into a meaningful ritual.

CASATI RITUAL BASE

Inspiration

Liturgical goldsmithing.

Crafted from metal with a brass electroplated finish,
Casati Ritual Base is designed to accompany the ritual of fragrance discovery.

Engraved with the Casati logo, it elegantly presents the perfume bottle while serving as a refined display piece.

Its metal surface can also be lightly sprayed with fragrance, offering a different way to explore the evolution of the composition.

An object created to slow the gesture of discovery and transform every fragrance trial into a more mindful experience.

CASATI BLACK RITUAL BOX

Inspiration

Preserving intensity.

BLACK is one of Casati's deepest and most persistent expressions. BLACK RITUAL BOX is designed to preserve the fragrance and allow for a more intimate, controlled discovery, without interfering with the surrounding olfactory environment.

Opening the box concentrates the presence of BLACK in the moment of discovery; closing it preserves its intensity.

A small ritual dedicated to a fragrance that asks to be encountered on its own.

CASATI REVERSIBLE DISPLAY

Casati display elements with an essential design, created to enhance the presentation of fragrances at the point of sale.

When turned upside down, they become small pedestals for Casati bottles, creating different heights and adding rhythm to the display.

The gold finish echoes the iconic details of the Casati universe.

One object, two forms. A new perspective on display.

CASATI SHOPPER BAG

Inspiration

Returning to matter.

The Casati Shopper Bag is crafted from cement paper, an essential, tactile material that evokes the earth and its elemental strength.

Its texture expresses Casati's connection with nature and with the natural raw materials from which every olfactory creation begins.

The rawness of the material meets the Casati lion, creating a balance between nature and refinement.

A bag that becomes part of the Casati identity even before revealing what it holds.

CASATI VISUAL

Inspiration

Staging identity.

The Casati Visual brings the Maison's imagery into the perfumery, transforming a display element into an immediately recognizable presence.

The lion, the textures, black and gold create a visual setting that accompanies the fragrance without overpowering it, establishing continuity between the product and the Casati universe.

Designed for window displays or in-store presentation, it identifies and enhances the Casati presence at the point of sale.
